NEWS RELEASE

Kindersley Loses to Humboldt in Tidiness Challenge

In the battle for volunteer hours, the City of Humboldt's residents bested Kindersley for time spent tidying their community during the week of June 16-20.

The good-natured challenge was a Communities in Bloom initiative designed to spur involvement in tidiness efforts in both communities. Kindersley Youth Council members cleaned Baker Park and McGowan Park on Monday to kick off the competition, logging more than 10 hours.

Hours were submitted and tracked by Mix 104.9 FM and its Humboldt sister station, 107.5 Bolt FM. Between Monday, June 16 and Friday, June 20, Kindersley residents logged 22 hours, compared to more than 150 hours logged by Humboldt volunteers.

As the winning condition agreed to by both communities, Mayor John Enns-Wind will now be required to wear the Humboldt Broncos' jersey at the Klippers' home opener game this fall.

"Humboldt was a very worthy competitor, and both of our communities benefited from the efforts made to clean and tidy up," says Mayor Enns-Wind. "Thanks to all who participated in the challenge and who continue to volunteer time in projects that beautify Kindersley."

The Town of Kindersley's official Communities in Bloom judging day is Monday, July 14.
