RCMP Musical Ride Coming to Kindersley

The RCMP Musical Ride is coming to Kindersley in celebration of Canada's 150th birthday in 2017.

Kindersley will host the Musical Ride at the West Central Events Centre, May 27-28, 2017, and is one of 24 communities selected for the tour, which includes stops in all ten Canadian provinces and one territory. The tour begins in May and continues until September.

The RCMP Musical Ride gives spectators an opportunity to experience the RCMP's heritage and traditions, while viewing an impressive display of equine skills. It also helps raise funds for local charities and initiatives across Canada.

Kindersley previously hosted the RCMP Musical Ride in 2011.

"We are excited to celebrate Canada's 150th birthday with cities and towns across the country and help raise money for their communities in which we perform," said Inspector Patrick Egan, Officer in Charge of the Musical Ride.

Ticket information will be available soon. Visit www.kindersley.ca for more details.
